Kim Russell as Sojourner Truth

From Speakers on Tour.com
Her life from American slave to American hero

Celebrating 15 years of touring schools, churches, theaters. Chautauqua or lecture. Clark County
Class Act, Nevada Humanities
(702)248-1232 Kimrussell@earthlink.net

For classroom or assembly

Objective:

To imagine people of history as real, living, persons

Students will be able to:

Ask questions of the historical character, framing the events in proper relations to events in the 19th century

Students and teachers will be encouraged to:

Develop Chautauqua. What is Chautauqua?
Historical presentations presented in the first person.
Students learn by 'becoming and being' the person

Reviews

Enlightening, dynamic, exciting and powerful. Nancy Schkurman, Curriculum and Professional Development, Clark County School District, Las Vegas, NV

Your portrayal of Sojourner Truth entertained and informed our audience and enhanced our gathering beyond our expectations. Angela Rushen, Assistant to the City Manager, Moreno Valley, CA

Thank you for making our African American History Month Celebration a success. Toni Rice, California State University, Channel Island

Like all the audience, I was enthralled by your performance. Truly you became Sojourner Truth and enabled us to live her history through you. Helen Riley, San Bernardino County Library, Barstow, CA

You received excellent ratings on all the evaluations—a couple of comments “Excellent!” and “Wonderful performance”. Cindy Wang, Idaho Humanities
